Please note the changes to the enrolment process for all Government Primary Schools across Victoria, including the following key dates:

15th April - Enrolment applications open

- Families 'within the zone' will be provided enrolment forms
- Families 'out of zone' will be able to fill out an application form

26th July - Enrolment applications due

- Families 'within the zone' submit completed enrolment forms
- Families 'out of zone' submit completed application form

29th July - 9th August - Notification of enrolment application outcomes to families

- As per the 'Priority Order of Placement' under the Department's Placement Policy
- School will communicate the formal process by which 'out of zone' families can appeal a non-placement.

23rd August - Acceptance of Offer letters and Closing date for written appeals

- Families offered a place, confirm acceptance in writing
- Families wishing to appeal a decision to email school

6th September - Families notified about the outcome of appeals

20th September - Closing date for appeals to the Regional Director

- Where an appeal to the school has been unsuccessful
